WILL REMODEL OLD CATHEDRAL

Plans on Foot to Change House of Worship into Modern Gothic Structure—Services Not to Be Hindered.

If the intentions and desires of Bishop Liberti are carried out, the Catholic cathedral in this city will be reconstructed into a pure Gothic design.

Considerable work of that nature has been done at the portals now, and it is the intention of those in charge of the work to keep right on and change the whole cathedral into a building that will harmonize with its surroundings.

One special feature in the contemplated changes will be a new modern gable roof strictly Gothic in its build. It will be much higher than the present roof, and at stated distances gabled windows will be cut for the purpose of light and air.

It is also the intention to build an addition to the rear. This rear addition will be for the sanctuary, and the main part of the old building will be devoted to the nave.

The changes as planned will make the cathedral a most modern house of worship.

R. B. CHARLES IS WORKING PORTLAND

R. B. Charles, who cut a dash in this city some three years ago seems to have run into the real thing up in Portland. A letter has been received in this city asking for information regarding the doings of Mr. Charles while in Honolulu.

It will be remembered that R. B. Charles opened up a notion store in the Progress block and attempted to sell articles of the cheap John variety. During his business flight he jumped into pilikia by borrowing a sum of money from an old lady of this city, who, being made acquainted with his methods of doing business, closed in on him with a suit. He squirmed out of trouble through the agency of his victim who, it is stated, loaned him more good money to settle the costs of the suit.

It seems that in the northwest city Charles has been figuring in a game a little more serious than getting old ladies to loan him money, and the authorities are closing in on him. While in this city he tried several schemes of the get-rich-quick variety but they all turned cold and clammy. His last act while here was to place a "come to lunch" notice on his store door and skip by the first available steamer.

There are quite a number of merchants in this city who would like to have Mr. Charles explain things regarding bills that have not been paid.

ORGAN RECITAL AT CENTRAL UNION

The organ recital to be given tonight by Sydney Hoban at Central Union church will begin at 8 o'clock. Admission will be free, but a collection will be made, and of this Mr. Hoban has asked Dr. Scudder to accept half for the church Anti-Tuberculosis Campaign Fund.

Mr. Hoban, who is an experienced organist, having held various church appointments in Sydney and elsewhere, and frequently played there on the "biggest organ in the world," will give solos by Batiata, Lefebure-Wely Wagner and Ketterer.

Mrs. Allen White will sing "Hear Ye, Israel," and "Aus Deiner Augen" (Ries); Mr. Hall "Crossing the Bar" (Cowles), and the principal tenor solo from Stainer's "Crucifixion." Miss Margaret Clarke will accompany.
